

Alexia, Little Sister

Life's not that easy, you'll know it someday
You'll fight for everything
Wake up from dreaming, something is changing
Confusion everywhere

I've never wanted to see my mother keep on crying
Pain is gonna steal my time
I never thought I could be the one whose Dad is dying
Who's gonna lead my life...

When I take a look into your eyes
And I see the pain inside
I just want to turn back the time
Dry your tears and make you smile

Never really want to see you cry
But baby, living it's so hard!
Come on little sister DADDY is gone
We've got to find the way to carry on

Life is not easy, never be the same
With all this emptiness
Wake up from dreaming, try to be something
We've got to go somewhere

I've never...
