

Alexia, Money Honey

I want your money, honey,
I don't want you body baby I don't need your love      2x

I want your money, honey
I don't want your body
Baby I don't need your love
'cause my heart is made of steal

Idon't want your body
baby I don't need your love
'cause I don't believe in love

Love is a memory that I keep on hiding deep in my soul and every time I try to set my heart I loose myself so bad life is a mystery no one knows the secrets to break through and everytime I try to change my ways, I find myself alone

I don't know what to do,
all day I'm sad and blue
I'll never be that fool

Idon't want your body
baby I don't need your love
'cause my heart is made of steal

I don't want your body
baby I don't need your love
'cause I don't believe in love

I live in misery
I don't want to fight for love anymore and every time I think of yesterday I see how it was wrong

I know my destiny
I don' t want to shed my tears anymore and every time I think of all my prayers I know that I am strong !

I don't know what to do,
all day I'm sad and blue

Idon't want your body
baby I don't need your love !
'cause I don't believe in love
