

Alexia, Sometimes

Sometimes I thought I gave you more than my life
I just wanna tell you sometimes
I thought I gave you more than my life
Sometimes, sometimes

What's going on with me
I don't wanna feel this way
Without a smile upon my face

And if you're leaving now
I wanna let you know
That I'll be fine and let you go

Whatever you wonder baby
Whatever you do!
Sometimes...

I thought I gave you more than my life
I just wanna tell you sometimes
I thought I gave you more than my life
Sometimes, sometimes...

Don't wanna see me cry
You got walk away
Get up and leave me all my space

I live my night and day
Thinking about the way
That I believe in God and faith...

Whatever you wonder baby
Whatever you do!
Sometimes...

Sometimes
I thought I gave you more than my life
I just wanna tell you
Stop!
