

Alexis Schuster, Can't Shake You

Can't shake this memory
Of all the things you said to me Things I fear, it's you I dread
Like that giant roller coaster

Your warm smile
The way you whispered in my ear
And even though your words weren't true
I found myself falling for you
As I fell deeper than I've ever been before

CHORUS:
can't leave me lying here crying on the floor can't leave me naked here just to wonder where you are tired of wasting my time and strength writing letters I know I'll never send using up those precious trees for my final confessions to you wondering if you'll want to know

it'll all come out some day and I won't do a thing to stop it maybe you'll want to hear it more one more time like that song you just can't get out of your head
