

Alexis Strum, Long Time Coming

All alone
But I don't wanna leave
So take me home

Long nights come and go
Time goes by so slow
Blue eyes are full
All you've gotta do is call

Maybe you will, maybe you won't
I can't wait forever
For you....
For you....

All alone
But I don't wanna leave
So take me home

Tears run in the cold
Waiting for you to show
Oh baby, brown eyes are cruel
I wonder if you know what you do

Maybe you do, maybe you don't
I can't wait forever
For you....
For you....

Long time coming, gonna find my baby
Long time coming, gonna find my baby
Long time coming, gonna find my baby (for you...)
Long time coming, gonna find my baby

All alone
But I don't wanna leave
So take me home
