

Alexis, The Real Me

Come on, come on, come on
Oh oh
I trip, I fall, I catch myself
Even wishin' I was someone else
I'm never where I'm suppose to be
Oh oh
I laugh out loud at stupid things
When I'm nervous I've been known to sing
I'm not sure what I should believe
I don't know who I am yet (am yet, am yet)
But I know who I wanna be
It's an adventure (an adventure)
Finding the real me (the real me)
I'm a reflection (a reflection)
Everything I see (the real me)
I cant wait to discover
I know I'm goin' to love her
The real me
Uh uh uh uh uh uh
I stumble, I crumble when your near
And all of my thoughts just disappear
I find myself in an awkward spot
I'm losin' all my sleep at night
Feel the question in my mind
Does he love me
Does he love me not
I build up my confidence with every experience
It's an adventure (an adventure)
Finding the real me (the real me)
I'm a reflection (a reflection)
Everything I see (the real me)
I cant wait to discover
I know I'm goin' to love her
The real me
Uh uh uh uh ya ya ya ya
Uh uh uh uh ya ya ya ya
An adventure (an adventure)
Finding the real me (the real me)
I'm a reflection (a reflection)
Everything I see (the real me)
I can't wait to discover
I know I'm goin' to love her
The real me
Uh
