

Alexisonfire, Adelleda

this is really only all we have:
day time, twilight, pitch black, night light
You had the coldest eyes and the softest touch:

These typed letters, beneath me Fuck with these buttons and knobs long enough and maybe things will turn out fine

Hide behind your crystal screen and blow kisses at me Remember what we said wouldn't happen?
Write your name on my chest in kerosene Spark a match and you will never be cold again

this is really only all we have:
day time, twilight, pitch black, night light
You had the coldest eyes and the softest touch:
day time, twilight, pitch black, night light.

Gag and destroy me bay-bee
I have a large collection of thunder that I stole from your window
