

Alexisonfire, Side Walk When She Walks

Dressed to kill you look so right
I am drunk with lust tonight
Your wounds are opening wide
And they might be just my size

Now I'm afraid of open water, but I often bathe in sin
Let's be honest
You know you shouldn't bother
Cause with me it's impossible to win

Dressed to kill you look so right
I am drunk with lust tonight
Your wounds are opening wide
And they might be just ...

There was always warmth between us (2X)

Dressed to kill you look so right
I am drunk with lust tonight
Your wounds are opening wide
And they might be just my size (just my size) (3x)
