

Alexz Johnson, I Don't Know If I Should Stay

Where's my will?
Can I find a way?
The earth is wide
And I can't sit still

A familiar sound
A familiar voice
Makes it so hard
To make a choice
I don't know if I should stay...

A thousand stars
You have my world
I'm bright enough
To fill these cracks

A familiar place
A familiar voice
Makes it so hard
To make a choice
I don't know if I should stay...

I ran to you like water
I threw my body in
And I'll stand up on the ocean
Just to show you that I am strong, strong
But what if I am wrong?

A familiar look
A familiar smile
Makes it so hard
To make a choice
I don't know if I should stay away...
