

Alexz Johnson, If I Should Stay

Where's my will
Can I find a way
The earth is wild
And I can't sit still

A familiar sound
A familiar voice
Makes it so hard to make a choice
I don't know if I should stay

A thousand stars
You will have my word
Aren't bright enough
To fill these cracks

A familiar place
A familiar voice

Makes it so hard to make a choice
I don't know if I should stay

I ran to you like water
I threw my body in
And I'll stand upon the ocean
Just to show you that I am strong
Strong
But what if I am wrong?

A familiar look
A familiar smile
Makes it so hard to make a choice
I don't know if I should stay
Mmmmm
Away
