

Alexz Johnson, LA Made Me

Baby Baby, running without a name
Can't you see they're pouring you down the drain?
(i know i know i know i know)
Painted lady crying there on the side
Poured her heart out, sent them for a ride
(i know i know i know i know)
(i know i know i know i know)
Tell me tell me why - are you in it for the dough?
Tell me tell me why - are you selling out your soul?
Tell me tell me why my baby...
LA LA, why you tearing her apart?
LA LA, why are you spitting on her heart?
LA LA, why so shady?
She Said, "LA made me, LA made me"
Stranger stranger, told you what to say
left in danger took all your money
(i know i know i know i know)
Maybe maybe, leave without a sound watch yourself LA don't fuck around
(i know i know i know i know)
(i know i know i know i know)
Tell me tell me why - are you in it for the dough?
Tell me tell me why - are you selling out your soul?
Tell me tell me why my baby...
LA LA, why you tearing her apart?
LA LA, why are you spitting on her heart?
LA LA, why so shady?
She Said,
"LA wont let me go, LA owns my soul"
"LA wont let me go, LA owns my soul"
(i know i know i know i know)
(i know i know i know i know)
she said, "LA made me, LA made me"
"LA wont let me go, LA owns my soul"
"LA wont let me go, LA owns my soul"
