

Alexz Johnson, My first in love

We spoke
But underneath our words
We said more
Eyes met
But we did not just look
We explored
I'm falling
(You've got me falling)
So slowly
(Don't want this to ever end)
I'm floating
(I'm overflowing)
Oh you
(Who are you)
And everything shining
(Your heart is singing to me)
(Everything's tingling)
And sparkling
(My world is spinning)
And new
Never knew a kiss
Could feel like this
This is my first in love
On my lips
And through my finger tips
All through my heart
Never been so touched by tenderness
This is my first in love
I've been down the street
Were kisses are swayed
But this is my first in love
