

Alexz Johnson, Running With The Devil

Looking up straight, front ahead and down the shoulder
Tryin' to find his way through the city
Crawling through an alley on the floor by a door
Needing help with the feeling that he's had before

Never calling anyone
Feeling unloved saying goodbye
Life is better when you hide
Never mind when you're there
'cause they never play it fair,
they never play it fair

Oh, maybe will maybe won't
Turn the clock around now
You think it's always better
But it won't take you away up out of here
Standing on the tracks, someone to appear

Running with the devil
Running with the devil
Running with the devil
Running with the devil
Running with the devil
Running with the devil instead

Running with the devil
Running with the devil
Running with the devil
Running with the devil
Running with the devil
Running with the devil instead

Memories hurt even more when you're bound
Like you're pending on a tight rope, no hope
Looking down for a face so small
Till finally they fell

Writing need letters to yourself
Maybe this won't help
Throw it all away and hurt yourself
When you're done see what it was all about
See the hurt in help

Your heart's letting you down
Feeling unbound like you're running in a race
No end in sight
Every day has a night,
every night has another fight

Still me, poke me in your pocket
I'll be there
Take me out when you can't shout
Can't find a reason why you're here
Sent to a place where the brave one reigns

Maybe will maybe won't

Running with the devil
Running with the devil

Running with the devil

Running with the devil

Goodbye you're waiting
You'll find you're waiting
Oh yeah

Maybe will maybe won't
Feels always better
But it won't take you away up out of here

Running with the devil
Running with the devil
Running with the devil
Running with the devil

Running with the devil
Running with the devil
Running with the devil
Running with the devil

Running with the devil
Running with the devil
Running with the devil
Running with the devil

It's okay if you really wanna stay where you stay
When you really wanna run, run away
When you'd really wanna pray

It's okay if you really need to stay where you stay
