

Alexz Johnson, Steal my love

Baby, I don't show it
But deep down I'm hoping for it
Somebody's gonna find a way to steal my love
Baby, I'm ridiculous
To push it all away like this
Better be gone with it or steal my love
Steal my love, steal my love
Steal my love
I bult up my walls
Three-thousand feet high
Sitting in the middle
With towers on either side
Built my little army
Fought allegiance strong
Ready to battle all emotion that comes along
He's walking away
And I kinda wish he wouldn't
I could keep him here
But somehow I think I shouldn't
Watch him disappear
My heart beating like a drum
Drum, drum, drum!
Baby, I don't show it
But deep down I'm hoping for it
Somebody's gonna find a way to steal my love
Baby, I'm ridiculous
To push it all away like this
Better be gone with it or steal my love
Steal my love, steal my love
Steal my love, steal my love
Whose stealing my world?
You gotta steal my heart
You steal my love
Gotta steal my love
Steal my love
Steal my love
Steal my love
Baby, I don't show it
But deep down I'm hoping for it
Somebody's gonna find a way to steal my love
Baby, I'm ridiculous
To push it all away like this
Better be gone with it or steal my love
Steal my love, steal my love
Steal my love
