

Alexz Johnson, The Breakdown

It won't let me
Everybody's out to get me
Tell me that the lines are what they seem
Oh that the heaven screams all that I dream
Oh will it ever let go

Oh, oh no
It's a breakdown x3

All the vampires are out on the look
Do they see me?
How long will it take?
To chase the monster
That's still in my head

It's on the sea
And it needs to be fed
I have the witness
To what has been done
It sort of had me
And I think it has won

Tell me that the lines are what they seem
Oh that the heaven screams all that I dream
Oh will it ever let go

Oh, oh no
It's a breakdown x3
