

Alexz Johnson, There's us

There's me,
Looking down at my shoes
The one smiling like the sun hat's you
What were you thinking
What was the song inside your head
There's us
Going on about a band
Working out how we play our hand
I lay there dreaming
Later all alone in my bed
If i were stupid
Maybe careless
So were you
Not everything is supposed to come true
Some words are best unsaid
Some love is not really love at all
I'll keep everything i shared with you
And that's enough
There's us
Freeze frame
I'm not about to cry
It's too late for us to change
Why try
I've got a camera
Tucked away inside my heart
If i'm a loser
Or just unlucky
So are you
Not everything is supposed to come true
Some words are best unsaid
Some love is not really love at all
I'll keep everything i shared with you
And that's enough
There's us
Somewhere between then and now
I looked away
When you said we will never change
And if you think what might have been
You'll lose today
And we've got songs to play
Not everything is supposed to come true
Some words are best unsaid
Some love is not really love at all
I'll keep everything i shared with you
And that's enough There's us
