Alexz Johnson, There's us

There's me,

Looking down at my shoes

The one smiling like the sun hat's you

What were you thinking

What was the song inside your head

There's us

Going on about a band

Working out how we play our hand

I lay there dreaming

Later all alone in my bed

If i were stupid

Maybe careless

So were you

Not everything is supposed to come true

Some words are best unsaid

Some love is not really love at all

I'll keep everything i shared with you

And that's enough

There's us

Freeze frame

I'm not about to cry

It's too late for us to change

Why try

I've got a camera

Tucked away inside my heart

If i'm a loser

Or just unlucky

So are you

Not everything is supposed to come true

Some words are best unsaid

Some love is not really love at all

I'll keep everything i shared with you

And that's enough

There's us

Somewhere between then and now

I looked away

When you said we will never change

And if you think what might have been

You'll lose today

And we've got songs to play

Not everything is supposed to come true

Some words are best unsaid

Some love is not really love at all

I'll keep everything i shared with you

And that's enough There's us
