

Alexz Johnson, Transparent Lies

Furtive lies and insinuation
All designed to tarnish my reputation
And devised by you without explanations
Tell me why ´ why ya spreading all these lies?

I'll try hard to end all this chaos
But when you disparage me you betray us
Said we'd be friends until the end and now I'm crushed
Tell me why ´ why ya feel a need to lie

Baby lies: they poison everything in sight
Those who lie can never keep track or take them back
Baby lies, keep messin' with your sleep at night
Ya never can disguise
Transparent lies...

What you said continue to taunt me
And the way you squander love, well it haunts me

Baby, open your eyes and maybe you'll see
Your heart cries a lesson and apologized

Baby lies: they poison everything in sight
Those who lie can never keep track or take them back
Baby lies, keep messin' with your sleep at night
Ya never can disguise
Transparent lies...

I got a story you wanna tell
About a girl who loves a guy more than life itself
But he got overwhelmed and undermined himself
Telling lies: Blatant lies, lies

Baby lies,
Transparent lies, lies lies, lies, lies
Why you telling me lies?
Lies
