

Aleyna Tilki, Take It Or Leave It

I've been waking up now, in the middle of the night
Losing all direction, should I live or should I die
When did it get so hard, won't u tell me that it's fine
Oh oh uh

I've been doing shots just so that I can feel the love
Tell me if it's easy, why can't I just rise above
I'm just tryna make sense but it's easy said than done
Saying oh oh uh

And It's hard sometimes for me to understand
I know some days I can get a little mad
But you can't have the good without the bad, oh oh

I can dance
When I cry
I can tell you a lie
It's my truth
You can take it or leave it

We make love
Then we fight
Where there's dark
There is Light
It's my truth
You can take it or leave it

I am who I am, who I am, who I am now
You can take it or leave it

I am who I am, who I am, who I am now
You can take it or leave it

I'm here on the rainbow, I've been living in the sky
There's so much that I want, but I'm running out of time
If everything ain't perfect, chances are that you're just fine
Saying oh oh uh

And It's hard sometimes for me to understand
I know some days I can get a little mad
But you can't have the good without the bad, oh oh

I can dance
When I cry
I can tell you a lie
It's my truth
You can take it or leave it

We make love
Then we fight
Where there's dark
There is Light
It's my truth
You can take it or leave it

I am who I am, who I am, who I am now
You can take it or leave it

I am who I am, who I am (this is who I am), who I am now
(this is who I am)
You can take it or leave it

I am who I am, who I am, who I am now

You can take it or leave it
