

Ali Campbell, That Look In Your Eye

Show me a girl peace and harmony in her heart
When things go wrong there will be no falling apart
One who understands, that things aren't always gonna go right and I'll show you a man who can show you the light

Show me a boy when the burden's on his shoulder
As time goes on seems to only make him bolder
Then I met you. Something that I can't explain
This feeling that I get is like I'm going insane

It's that look in your eyes, that say you love me
And all the silly things that you do
Those feelings that I get from the stars above me
Tells me you're for me And I'm the one for you

Hey, I thank you baby
I thank you baby I thank you

Show me a girl that can make me feel better
With a kiss sealed inside a perfumed letter
One who understands, when the tour is six months long,
And waiting with open arms, 'cos it's been too long

Show me a boy whose loving that I'm missing
Who can be there when I need someone to listen
One who keeps in mind that I should never be alone
Because I'll be there even if it's by telephone

It's that look in your eyes, that say you love me

And all the silly things that you do
Those feelings that I get when ever you're near me
Tells me you're for me And I'm the one for you

Yeah, I thank you baby I thank you baby
Yeah, I thank you baby
