A dark red strawberry pie
Let me entertain you
Enchanting honey love
No matter how much I eat, I won't stop
Love me

Grab onto
The silver knife
From that moment, my heart flutters

My stomach is empty
Like an animal
I used to love it

I want that boy
That boy doesn't know
I wonder if this boy is okay?
No, no matter which boy it is
They're all the same on the inside, right?

A dark red strawberry pie
Let me entertain you
Enchanting honey heart
No matter how much I eat, I won't stop

A wonderful strawberry pie
It's sweetly painful
Overflowing honey love
No matter how much I give you, it's not enough
Love me

I spread out the food
Things like candy
This way and that
These are the remains of my love

From room to room
The robins are Talking to each other

Chatting, bouncing around
We fell asleep together
If three days pass,
My love is bottled
A beautiful mildew grows

Entertain me, okay?
Enchanting honey heart
No matter how much I drink, I'm still thirsty

A wonderful strawberry pie
It's sweetly painful
Overflowing honey love
No matter how much I give you, it's not enough
Love you

A dark red strawberry pie
Let me entertain you
Enchanting honey love

A wonderful strawberry pie
It's sweetly painful

Love me
