

Alias, One More Chance

I know you've seen it in my eyes
All of those lame excuses
Suprised you haven't hit the road before
Something better than a lonely night
Seem to be so elusive, when all I do is walk right out the door

All I'm asking for is one more chance
Have pity on a dying man
If I lose you that's what I am
Just give me one more chance

OOH We've taken quite a ride
Something like a roller coaster
And nothing matters if you don't stay on till the end
I know you'll wonder why
Have to think it over
You won't be sorry if you crash my party again

Chorus
