

Alice Cooper, Cleared By Fire

I dont know but Ive been told
The streets of hell are paved with gold
Crazy, crazy
You told me that nothings free
Except my own insanity
Crazy, maybe
Wake me, shake me
Wake me, shake me
You offer me the world and all its wealth
All for myself
You promised me a life eternally
And drink to my health
I may seem only half-glued
But I can see right through you
[CHORUS]
Burn it up, burn it down
Burn this sucker to the ground
Oh yeah, oh yeah
Going, going, going, gone
Theres a party going on
Do you think I dont know who you are
A fallen star
When I feel my soul scream out at night
I know youre not far
You need a better disguise
This one wont win any prize
[CHORUS]
Cleansed by fire, cleansed by fire
I may seem only half-glued
But I can see right through you
What about dark
What about light
What about wrong
What about right
What about death
What about sin
What about the web youre trying to spin
What about truth
What about life
What about glory
What about Christ
What about peace
What about love
What about faith in God above
What about war
What about hell
What if I stumble
What if I fell
What about blood
What about greed
And all of these things youre offering me
Yeah, what about me, little me
You lose and I win
You couldnt suck me in
Its over, you have no power
Youre lost
And Im found
And Im Heaven bound
Go back to where you belong
To where you fell
Go to hell
