

Alice Cooper, When Hell Comes Home

Daddy wants to take me for a ride
Daddy likes to drink when Daddy drives
He's poundin' on my door
He wants to come inside
Yeah... Daddy wants to take me for a ride
That's just the way it is when I'm left alone
Yeah, that's when hell comes home
Mommy says that everything is fine
Mommy hides her bruises all the time
She always makes excuses
But I know that she is lying
Mommy says that everything is fine
That's just the way it is
He's evil to the bone
Mommy says that everything is fine
Yeah that's just the way it is
When we're left alone
'Cause that's when hell comes home
I hear those footsteps on the stairs
Mom's bleedin' out or maybe she don't care
We live in darkness and despair
I'm just so tired of being scared
Daddy's gonna get a big surprise
I'll put one right between his eyes
And with his blood
I'll write his last goodbyes
Yeah, daddy's gonna get a big surprise
That's just the way it is
He'll be deader than a stone
That's just the way it is
He'll leave us both alone
That's just the way it is
When hell comes home
Home...
