

Alice Peacock, Lovely

I've never known someone quite like you
You take my breath away
You knock me out with the little things you do
And all the words you say
Because you're lovely
Lovely you see
That's all there is to it
So very lovely, lovely to me
Sometimes when you're looking in my eyes
I can't hold your gaze
'Cause I don't know if you can read my mind
And what it will betray
Because you're lovely
Lovely you see
I can't deny it
So very lovely, lovely to me
I cannot wait 'til I see you again
