

Alicia Keys, Stay ft. Lucky Daye

You send my heart way up
And you let me in your space
Show me everything you're made of
Give me more than I can take
When I don't know what to say
You can read it on my face
And we won't let time fade us

Cause the love's right here
Love's right here to stay
Right here to stay

You push me to my limits
And you build me when I'm drained
You see my scars and bruises
But you touch me through the pain
Get me lost in your confusion
I know you fill in all the blanks
And I don't know what we're doing

But the love's right here
(Right here, baby)

Cause this love's right here

Cause this love's right here, oh
Cause this love's right here
(Oh, right here to stay, yeah)

Promise you'll never get wet when the rain comes down
I will be ready to swim when the rain comes down
You come and drown out my pain when the rain comes down
Comes down, oh
