

Alicja Boratyn, Angel.!

Hey, hey angel!
Tell me what happened
Why your glow doesn't light up my way
No one knows me
And I forget your face
Who will hold my hand
When I feel so sad?
Tell me who will be my best friend?
And who will make me free?
Like you do...
I wanna see your eyes
I wanna see you lips
Whisper to me...
Now my way is so long
My fate is so sad
My hands are so cold
When you're not there
I don't know myself
My glow isn't strong enough
To light up my way
Now my way is so long
My fate is so sad
My hands are so cold
When you're not there
I don't know myself
My glow isn't strong enough
To light up my way
Hey, hey angel!
Tell me what'll happen
Will you come down and warm me again?
Tell me don't you miss me
Tell me you want to kiss me
I wanna hide
Under your wings
And fly away
To the place where
I will be safe
Will be safe...
Now my way is so long
My fate is so sad
My hands are so cold
When you're not there
I don't know myself
My glow isn't strong enough
To light up my way
Now my way is so long
My fate is so sad
My hands are so cold
When you're not there
I don't know myself
My glow isn't strong enough
To light up my way
Just show me one sign
Just tell me if everything is all right
I wanna feel that someone is watching me
And really cares for me
Really cares for me
Now my way is so long
My fate is so sad
My hands are so cold
When you're not there
I don't know myself
My glow isn't strong enough
To light up my way

Now my way is so long
My fate is so sad
My hands are so cold
When you're not there
I don't know myself
My glow isn't strong enough
To light up my way
