

Alicja Janosz, Friend (feat. Jarek Krużolek)

I know, now you're far away, livin' your own way, your own way
I know everything has changed
In your life there's no place for us, no place...

But if the wind destroys all your house
And water will take everything you have, all you have...
Just call my name and I'll be there,
I'll come to you to hold your hand, Whatever happens I'm your friend

I know life tore us apart
Leaving us with doubt, us with doubt We might live our separate lives
But the past will always breathe in us.

But if the wind destroys all your house
And water takes everything you have, all you have...
Just call my name and I'll be there,
I'll come to you to hold your hand, Whatever happens I'm your friend

I know I'm under Your spell
Let's try our path once again
I tried, forget about the rest
Lay down on my whispers calling Your name

But if the wind destroys all your house
And water takes everything you have, all you have...
Just call my name and I'll be there,
I'll come to you to hold your hand, Whatever happens I'm your friend
