

Alien World, Mirage

Alien World

Everybody, Nobody, Somebody, Anybody

Mirage

Mirage's has no meaning there and gone within one breath you inhale and exhale without ever seeing what was there before, no one can say truly beautiful but it has gone away

Disappearing, reappearing

just as fast as it has come

It goes, so keep your love here babe right here, right now, forever more true love can knock down any wall fantasizing about that guy on your wall bring the poster to poster closer to your head you'll learn your love for that idol is simply a mirage

Disappearing, reappearing

just as fast as it comes

It goes, so keep your love here babe

It can come it can go within one breath your love for me my love for you come and go come and go..... mirages leave you, keep you staring longer than ever before
