

Alisha's Attic, Free

Take a breather angel
Gather up your thoughts and fears
As you sit there in that room
Be sure that justice will be done
But only if you believe
Every second, every minute
Just gets harder to hold on to your sanity
(ooo)
But as you sit there on that floor
Be sure that other angels have flown away
Till they're...
Free
You say "get these chains... chains... off of me"
Free
You say "get these chains... chains... off of me";

For a lifetime angel
You must live with the reality
(you must live with it yeah)
As you grasp your knees into your chest
Be sure that heaven is out there
Holding on is the hardest thing to do
When you're hanging by your veins
As you wait there for the verdict
Only the truth will deliver

Till they're...
Free
You say "get these chains... chains... off of me";
Free

You say "get these chains... chains... off of me";
Free
You say "get these chains... chains... off of me";
Free
You say "get these chains... chains... off of me";

(can you believe
this is our fate?
can you understand?
can you keep it together?
can you believe
this is our fate?
can you understand?)
Friends till the end

Till they're...
Free
You say "get these chains... chains... off of me";
Free
You say "get these chains... chains... off of me";
Till they're...
Free
You say "get these chains... chains... off of me";
Till they're...
Free
You say "get these chains... chains... off of me";
(free
you say "get these chains... chains... off of me";)
