

Alisha's Attic, The Golden Rule

Someone told me if you live in a glass house
You might die in a big earthquake and end up with a stone in your mouth

I felt like kicking out when my boyfriend made me cry
But the loveliest fairy in the world and her name is do as you would be done by Kittenish behaviour or is it she don't care at all?

Hit 'em like a tankgirl it's their attitudes against the wall
Crush 'em with a crack sound and then hang 'em out to dry
Sprinkle a little big strong fairy dust right into their eyes

It's the Golden Rule
So I read in some poem somewhere
It's the Golden Rule
