

Alison Krauss & Union Station, Restless

Honey, I know you've been alone some
Why don't you phone some? 'Cause I love you
And honey, I know I've been away some
I've had to pay some and you have too
But the one thing I know
That when I, I turn out the light
Visions of you, dear
Dance in the night
I've been put down, pushed around
Apprehended and led downtown
And I can't help it if I'm outta sight
'Cause I'm restless tonight
I just can't stand being alone
I'm gonna have to change that some day
There's a restless feelin' in my bones
And I know that at times it just won't go away
So if it's all the same, honey
I can't take the blame, baby
I can't play a game, honey
It's true as true
And if in the end
The temptation wears ya' thin
Honey I'll, I'll just pretend
That I'll leave it up to you
But the one thing I know
That when I turn out the light
Visions of you, dear
Dance in the night
I've been put down, pushed around
Apprehended and led downtown
An' I can't help it if I'm full of fight
But the one thing I know
That when I, I turn out the light
Visions of you, dear
Dance in the night
I've been put down, pushed around
Apprehended and led downtown
An' I can't help it if I'm outta sight
'Cause I'm restless tonight
