Tonight I'll be Lonely Too

It's like I always figured

You'd be gone from me so soon

A heartache would be the outcome

And I'd be singing this lonely tune

Your friends all tell me your happy now

And how good she's treating you

It looks to be the perfect love

Well tonight, I'll be lonely too

You're only trying to show me

It's no use, the pain's in your eyes

I know you've been so unhappy

Talk of new love, the words are all lies

So you'll go on pretending like always

Well tonight, I'll be lonely too

It's no use, the pain's in your eyes

I know you've been so unhappy

Talk of new love, the words are all lies

So you'll go on pretending like always

Well tonight, I'll be lonely too
