Alison Krauss & Union Station, Tonight I'll be Lon

Alison Krauss & Eamp; Union Station Miscellaneous Tonight I'll be Lonely Too It's like I always figured You'd be gone from me so soon A heartache would be the outcome And I'd be singing this lonely tune

Your friends all tell me your happy now And how good she's treating you It looks to be the perfect love Well tonight, I'll be lonely too

You're only trying to show me It's no use, the pain's in your eyes I know you've been so unhappy Talk of new love, the words are all lies

So you'll go on pretending like always Well tonight, I'll be lonely too

You're only trying to show me It's no use, the pain's in your eyes I know you've been so unhappy Talk of new love, the words are all lies
