

Alkaline Trio, In Vein

My point of reference makes me
Afraid to begin convincing
But you might as well just change your name
Because I only recognize this shadow
Kind of like a superhero
With nobody's best interest in mind
Now there's blood in the water
That I squeezed from this stone here
And we turned into our cheap wine
I swallowed every drop
I could feel my stomach rotting
You were so supportive as I drank through the pain
Do you recognize this shape? It's the back of your hand
You paste it on my face here again, and again
And I don't wanna be the one who takes this place in vein
Dove off the deep side platform
Jackknife to bone dryest floor
One broken ankle saved my name
And this eraserburn I dig in deep, at every turn
It keeps getting darker and the fear stays the same
I don't want to take this place in vein
