

Alkaline Trio, Song For Julie

Got the call
Got the call just a couple of days ago
But they took
They Went and Took one half of your soul
There we were
Nearly one thousand miles away
And we heard
Could hear your tears falling clear as day
We just miss you, we're O.K.

There are times
times you'll never forget
In your heart
In your heart you will always live free of regret
There's a love
Love like this never dies
It just grows
Grows and it strengthens over time
The stronger days of our lives

I was wrong when I said things never work out right
I was wrong to believe that there's no meaning this life
Its Just taken a couple of years shedding my own tears
Be able to hold on and atleast say to you
We'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone
