

All About Eve, Apple Tree Man

The tree gives me shade
The shade turns to shadow
He turns to speak
The apple tree man
Lives in a secret garden
And I held the key
He may be alone with himself
Living in his mind
He may be in love with himself
But what will he do when he finds
He left someone behind
Maybe he let me down, down...
Lullaby baby to sleep
And charm away
Sleep turns to dream
The apple tree man
See him become the sandman
See the cradle fall (I watch it fall)
