

All About Eve, Lady Moonlight

What am I to do in my darkest hour
Lamplight to light my despair
She has the stars in her eyes
The mind in her hair, my sanctuary
Silent and silver...
Shine bright Lady Moonlight
Should I cry, should I weep
My secrets she'll keep them in her temple
'Neath her veil
She is Isis she is Guinevere
Sister to the sea
Queen of the night, with the answer
And my heart disbelieves
The myth surrounding Eve
She couldn't know what she was doing
Shine bright Lady Moonlight
