

All About Eve, No Eden

You ask
You may say "who cares ? "
I do... and so should you
I see no eden
There is no eden
I see no eden
There is no reason
Bough breaks !
Snakes may fall...
Who's scared... I am

But so are you
I see no eden.....
Believe and realise
The candy clouds have gone
Remember springtimes
Forgotten long ago
All you who hear
Should heed to the call
Relive and believe
Or we again must fall
