

All About Eve, Nothing Without You

In every ounce of pleasure
From now until forever
I'm lost in you
And reading through the pages
Prophets and sages
Living inside of you
From innocence to blushes
Treasuring the rushes
Running away
Then I await
As the story ends I tumble from my bed

I'm nothing without you
I'm nothing without you
I'm nothing without you
It's nothing without you

And sometimes in the pictures
All lost between the scriptures
I confine myself
Then maybe there's a poet
Just waiting there to kiss me

Soft as a lullaby
And I need the invitation
Touch your slumber
Running away
Come and play
The story slips so deeply in my head

I'm nothing without you
I'm nothing without you
I'm nothing without you
It's nothing without you

Sailing leaves
Showering me
Leaving me
Down the stream (?)

I'm nothing without you
I'm nothing without you
There's nothing within me
How can we learn from you
