

All About Eve, Will I Start To Bleed

Silence floats into the room
Whispers to me out of tune
And I wonder if these deadly
Awkward moments stay
Stabbing their spikes in me
Will I start to bleed

Raise your eyes until they're mine
Lift yourself towards the light
Your face looks like a waterfall to me
If I concede
What is it going to mean
Will I start to bleed

Magnetic field around your heart
I'm sure I felt the engine start
But what if all the fuel runs out

Glad I didn't stay with you
So much more for me to do
I am free like Mathieu
In The Age Of Reason
But something is missing
Will I start to bleed good time
