

All About Eve, Will You Surrender

Heaven blessed or man possessed
Riding through the forest
Through the trees, across the seas
Storming through the tempest

Will you surrender
Will you surrender
Oh will you all surrender
Now will you surrender

Do you fear the word of him
Who makes a lie unwritten

No rose was born without a thorn
Since first the fruit was bitten

Do you fear the word of him
Who makes a lie unwritten
No rose was born without a thorn
Since first the fruit was bitten

Now will you surrender
Will you surrender
Oh will you all surrender
Now will you surrender
