Happy endings

time does tell that even if you say so she'd be the one who would know that i did do what i've done and i, wouldn't call it cheating i'd just say i was leading her on why walk while i run away

You- you ask me wht went wrong

Me-i'll write you this last song

Please- just tell me one way we can win

One-more thing before i go

Two-the one who loves me so

Three-don't make me count to three again

just what would you do, if you're a dream than come true stop pretending that wht you mean isn't what yo say hopeful dreaming of times before the pain, wishing it was still the same loving leaving round and round and round we go again walks alone have often lead to thinking my love for you is sinking to what seemes an all time low or high, limits never ending and don't you know i'm sending there's no venture i won't go for you

(chorus)

she walks away, she talks away

she walks away

away away,

(chorus)
