Why Worry

I worry, I wonder all the time why worry

It's killing me, forget about it

I whisper, remember what she did

Don't miss her

Set me free, she won't allow it

Angry and gone, and the list goes on and on

Now I'm letting up, I should be the one who's letting go

She's lonely, she's scared, I'm relationship impaired

If it's love, I will differ, I'm being lost being with her

I can't move on, I can't take it

She, she says we won't ma-a-ake it now

I can't move on, I can't take it

She, she says we won't ma-a-ake it now

Be-lieving, the things i did were wrong

I'm leaving

It fades a-way, forget about it

She's binding, can't do a thing alone

Rewinding

Times before, can't live without it

I don't know

But you did but you did ut yo-ou did

Please don't go

Now my feelings for you they're now lost

'cause we're through anymore

I'll write you , I'll call you

Now
