Miranda, we met face to face and I lost me head

Miranda, I saw your smile and felt something click inside

Miranda, fifteen hours together in Arizona

I couldn't stand up, small talk

And no small amount of beer

Last night turned into today

You were one mile high and rising

Miranda, a party for two in your hotel room

I couldn't stand it

The fun came easily, but the next day too soon

Last night turned into today

You were one mile high and rising

My mind is swimming, the bells are ringing in my ears

The sun's peaking through the curtains

Seeing you all too clear

A wink and a smile and a kiss good-bye

A wink and a smile and a kiss good-bye

A wink and a smile and a kiss good-bye

Good-bye, so long, I hope that I will see you around

Good-bye, so long, I hope that I will see you around

Good-bye, so long, I hope that I will see you around

Good-bye, so long, I hope that I will see you around
