All That Remains, I Die In Degrees

[Solo: Herbert]
I'd follow endlessly to live the life I've seen now every passing moment I die but one degree shall I relinquish my integrity thereby ensuring that I'll remain unclean Until my days filled with not untrust and fear I'll not make one vow to which I won't adhere I didn't want it this way but I've never wanted to stay my life take not for granted yet nothings changed in me the search for true perfection will lead me endlessly
