

All That Remains, Whispers (I Hear You)

It may seem at last days passing mean nothing
But the suns that set cause only pain
Violence in words like slashes wound deeply
Love is not when you feel only pain
Her touch poison flows through my veins
No more I denounce all your childish games
Whispers (I hear your)
Poison (flows in me)
Lost inside you I'm not free of you
Break my bonds again
Love lost arrogant whore paint strife on this canvas
Failure I am a fool I should have seen
Whispers poison break my bonds again
Love lost failure
I should have seen
I should have seen
