

All The Day Holiday, Mountains

The love that I feel inside of me is all I need, it's right.

The beauty of life, the simple things fill me up with a breeze. Stars shine brighter. Music fills my ears.

It's Day and night, with this I can love my enemies.

Experience as I experience,

A fire that runs as fast as horses run, but never get tired.

It's Day and night, with this I can love my enemies.

It's rain or shine with this I can move mountains.

I'm so excited! I'm so excited, for what is to come!
