

All Time Low, Tell Me I'm Alive

Just got jumped in an alley
Life's too short, picked a fight with a bouncer at a bar in the valley
Got a couple bruises and a bite mark on my lip from kissing vampires
Let's find a park, let's kill a bottle, it's a start if there's a spark
Light up this icy heart but baby don't you cry for me

I'm messy, I'm reckless
I fuck shit up for breakfast
My life is a trainwreck, I'm burning through my paychecks on the weekends
These cheap friends pull me into the deep end
Now I'm drowning, I'm sinking, it's good to feel something
And I- I wanna fly, wanna burn, I wanna die for cheap thrills again and tell me I'm alive

Sold my soul to the devil for a pack of lights and a night spent in jail
I can keep as a memento, x's on my hand and a hospital bracelet
No one gets to say I never went for it
Let's find a park, let's kill a bottle, it's a start if there's a spark
Light up this icy heart but baby don't you cry for me

I'm messy, I'm reckless
I fuck shit up for breakfast
My life is a trainwreck, I'm burning through my paychecks on the weekends
These cheap friends pull me into the deep end
Now I'm drowning, I'm sinking, it's good to feel something
And I- I wanna fly, wanna burn, I wanna die for cheap thrills again and tell me-
I-I wanna fly, wanna burn, I wanna die for cheap thrills again and tell me I'm alive

So pour me another and kiss me like there's no tomorrow
I wanna have your baby, let's move to Toronto
Let's fall off the face of the earth 'cause we're all bound to die but hey babe we tried
So tell me I'm alive (tell me I'm alive), tell me that it's all alright
Tell me I'm alive and bring me back to life
