

All Together Separate, Paradise

Free your mind
Catch a glimpse of what I'm planning for your destiny
See the sun that's rising high into eternity
You will shine much brighter when you are finally free
I'm going home and I'm taking you with me
Where I'm from there's never a tomorrow
Where I'm from forever starts today
Where I'm from, forget about your sorrow
Cause you will be there with me
Today in paradise

Free your mind
Mingle with the angels as you walk these streets
Remember how they celebrated once you believed Now you don't have to worry cause you will never be who you used to be
Before you knew me
I can't wait for that time to come
I can't wait to see you perfectly
I can't wait for you to finally see my face
